

Kuzmin A. General Characteristic of Position of Officials of Belarus in the Second Half of the XIX-th – the beginning of the XX-th Centuries

The object of study is the internal policy of Russian government. The subject is the policy in the system of local control and court, officials assigning for the basic positions in Belarusian provinces at the second half of the XIX-th century – the beginning of the XX-th centuries. The purpose of the study is to determine the basic principles of policy of Russian government in reforming state institutes and acquisition by their personnel in Belarusian provinces in this period. The author comes to the conclusion that the system of local government on the Belarusian lands possessed a number of differences compared with central provinces of the empire. After the uprising of 1863 the tsarist government began to use representatives of provinces of the empire as office – holders whose main obligation was working with local population.

Рукапіс паступіў у рэдкаленне 18.02.2012

РЕПОЗИТОРИЙ БРГУ